

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Governor Crist Appoints Central Floridian to Higher Education Facilities Financing Authority

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS, Fla., November 12, 2007 – Central Floridian, David W. Rieck, chief financial officer of Altamonte Springs-based, Mainstream Construction Group, Inc. was appointed on Friday, November 9, 2007 by Florida Governor Charlie Crist to the Higher Education Facilities Financing Authority. Rieck was appointed to a five-year term beginning November 8, 2007, and ending January 17, 2012.

Having joined Mainstream Construction Group in 2005, Rieck's financial and management experience includes director of financial planning and analysis at Fallon Community Health Plan; director of clinical operations at Boston University, School of Dental Medicine; chief financial officer at statewide, non-profit, Connecticut Community Care; and as an adjunct instructor at Framingham State College, Framingham, Mass. He holds a Master of Business Administration in Finance from the University of Hartford, Hartford, Conn., and a Bachelor of Business Administration in Management from Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Mich.