

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mainstream Construction Group Completes Three Dollar General Stores in Southeast

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS, FLA., July 9 2007 – Altamonte Springs, Fla.-based Mainstream Construction Group, Inc. has completed three Dollar General variety discount stores for developer RT Retail Development Services, LLC of Lexington, S.C. With a combined total construction value of $950,000, Mainstream built the three, 9,100-square-foot corporate prototypes in the communities of Eatonton, Ga., Waterloo, S.C., and Seneca, S.C.

As one of the Southeast's premier contractors of corporate prototypical buildings for retailers and restaurants, Mainstream provides owners, developers and investors with a variety of construction services including design/build, design assist, fast track scheduling and preconstruction site adaptation services. The Company has current and recently completed projects for such well known brands as Dollar General, Family Dollar, Starbucks Coffee, Dunkin' Donuts and Baskin Robbins, and is the exclusive builder of Crispers Fresh Salads and Such, whose majority owner is Publix, Inc.

###